We structure an appropriate dues and fees schedule that provides the funds necessary to maintain the optimal functioning of our synagogue and our religious school. We strive to make it possible for any individual or family to become and remain a member at a rate commensurate with their ability to pay. We do not turn anyone away and are pledged to work with members according to their financial situation.

The above schedule is carefully created so Temple Beth Sholom can continuously provide:

- an environment where the spiritual needs of the congregants are met through worship in accordance with Jewish tradition
- a religious education for children and adults that cultivates an appreciation of Jewish faith and heritage
- a facility that stimulates fellowship in the Jewish community and strengthens relationships amongst our congregants and relations with Jewish people everywhere.
